Register for Small Groups

Today is the last day to register for a small group study. Please use your Connection Card to register for the group of your choice. If you didn't receive a Discipleship Atlas, you can pick up one from the information table. The Atlas describes the small groups being offered.

Wild Game Dinner Meeting

The final meeting for preparing for the 2010 Wild Game Dinner will be held on Wednesday, January 20 at 6:00 pm in Fellowship Hall. We also need help with setting up the prizes. Any time you can give will be greatly appreciated.

Wild Game Dinner Tickets

If you have any extra tickets for the Wild Game Dinner, please take them to the office tomorrow morning so they can be distributed to those who are on the waiting list for tickets.

Income Tax Information

A record of your giving for 2009 is available on the information table. This can be used for IRS purposes.

Care Boxes for Soldiers

For the care boxes for our soldiers, please bring in the following through January 31: books, magazines, disposable cameras, hard candy, potato chips in cans, breakfast bars, stationary and pens, phone calling cards, beef jerky, lip balm, neck coolers, sunscreen, flashlights, cookies, small board games, letters, current newspapers, wipes, toilet paper, insect repellent (no aerosol cans) and eye drops. A table has been set up at the rear of the sanctuary for your items.

Sponsors Needed

Guest Services Ministry is seeking people who would be willing to act as sponsors to visitors and others who are new to PSC; to guide them as they get connected in the church. If you would like to be part of this, join us in Fellowship Hall at 9:45 this morning, as we put together our ideas for this ministry.

Esther

Think the Book of Esther is just for women? Think again! A man played a very important role in Esther's life as she was growing up and as she made decisions as queen. Join this Wednesday evening study and learn how the lessons in this Book apply to our lives today. We will also celebrate Purim and learn more about this meaningful festival which is still celebrated by Jews today.

Coffee Talk

Ladies, our next Coffee Talk will be on Thursday, February 4 at 6:30 pm at Corner Coffee. We want you to come and verse it. Bring your favorite verse to share; it can be a Bible verse, a verse of a song, a verse of poetry, or you can just converse with us. Invite a friend; and remember, the only cost is the price of a coffee or other drink.

Discipleship Commission

The date for January's Discipleship Commission meeting has been changed to Tuesday, January 19.

Board Packets

Packets of reports from January's board meeting are available on the information table. This information is for anyone who is interested in the work of the LBA.

Addresses of Soldiers

We are planning to send "care boxes" to our men and women who are currently serving in the military. To submit names and addresses, you may use your Connection Card, or call the church office, or contact Judy Knox. Please include how the soldier is related to you.

Meet us in Fellowship Hall between services on Jan. 24 and see how you can get involved. Matthew 18:19-20 says, "Where two or three are gathered..."

If you have children, especially teenagers, you will want to attend the seminar, "How Not to Be Your Child's ATM" on Sunday, Feb. 21 during the Sunday School hour. Order for Home Worship

Singing

Scripture Isaiah 6:1-13

- What volunteer ministries have you been involved with? How were you recruited?
- If King Uzziah represents stability to Judah, what does his death mean? Why does God choose this time to reveal himself to Isaiah?
- Imagine you are Isaiah. What do you tell a friend about what you saw, heard, and felt in vs. 1-4?
- What questions about God's nature and purpose does this encounter raise for you?
- What makes Isaiah despair for his life and confess his sin?
- Animals were burned on the altar as a substitute for the death of the sinner. What is the significance of Isaiah's lips being touched with a coal from this altar?
- Compare Isaiah's response in vs. 8 with vs. 5. What is significant about that?
- What is Isaiah's new mission? What effect will it have on Judah? Is this what God wants to happen? Or an ironic statement of what God knows will happen?
- How is your experience with God like Isaiah's: Awestruck? Guilt-ridden? Cleansed? Are you willing to serve anywhere, anytime?
- God's holiness and universal reign awed Isaiah. Which of God's attributes most impresses you? Why?
- Why has God sent you to your world?

A Time of Prayer

For the Church, for the Nation, for Others, for Self

Triumphant Quartet

Mark your calendar for Sunday, May 16 so you don't miss the special day that is planned. The Triumphant Quartet will be presenting the morning worship service and they will be back at 6:00 pm to present a concert. We hope you will plan to attend, invite your family and friends, and support this group as they present the Word to us and minister to us in song. You can find out more about the Triumphant Quartet at their web site: triumphantquartet.com

Helping Hand

Helping Hand Ministry is available to provide a meal due to death in the family. During January, contact Elaine Keener at 532-2637.

Care Network

The Care Network is in place to meet the needs of the Prince Street Church family. To request or to offer assistance, please call Jeff Kunkleman at 532-4198.

Heading to the Hospital?

Federal laws prohibit hospitals from distributing information without the patient's consent. A side effect of these laws is that unless you sign the right forms, the hospital will no longer contact us to let us know you are a patient. We want to respect your privacy, but we also want to provide pastoral care during your hospital stay. So, if you are heading to the hospital, and would like a pastoral visit, please contact the church office, or clearly instruct the hospital that you would like Prince Street Church contacted. Thanks for your help.

Snow Removal

Persons are needed to shovel snow from the church sidewalks following snowstorms. Would you be willing to help with this need? Contact Wayne Hawkins or Tom Cressler.
