

Victors Every Day

This class is studying a series of topics that can poison the believer. We are in a spiritual battle against rulers, authorities, and spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm. We will learn about Satan's contempt of believers and how it compels him to try to prevent our spiritual growth. In this study entitled, "Victors Every Day," we will study the steps that are needed to counter the obstacles of Satan.

James

With energetic style and crisp, well-chosen words, James boldly tells us that genuine faith will inevitably produce good deeds. James gives us practical advice on living the Christian life. The Book covers a variety of topics such as: the relationship of faith and action, controlling our speech, the two types of wisdom, and the value of patience. This is a how-to-book on Christian living where you can become a doer of the Word instead of just a listener. This is a class for teens aged 16+. Bring your Bible, a study guide is provided.
