To Our Church Family:

We would like to express our profound appreciation at the outpouring of condolences over the loss of our daughter Kim Bard. Our family, friends, and church family have expressed their sympathy in countless heartfelt ways through wonderful hugs, beautiful cards, lovely prayers, meaningful scriptures, delicious food, personal visits, and phone calls. The burning sting of grief is never easy to weather, but it becomes more manageable knowing that so many people showed acts of kindness and thoughtfulness. We do not understand why God has chosen to take Kim but we are assured that He has a plan for her and we shall see Kim again.
